Mark your calendars and plan to attend this life-changing event!

Doing the Dream: A Cultural Celebration
Saturday, Jan. 15, 2005 • Kokomo High School Auditorium

A sign language interpreter will be provided. This event is sponsored in part by the Community Foundation of Howard County.

Doors open to the public at 9:30 a.m.

10 a.m.—Eva Mozes Kor will share an inspirational story that will touch the hearts of any survivor. Mrs. Kor is a survivor of Auschwitz and founder of the CANDLES Holocaust Museum in Terre Haute. (Appropriate for all ages.)

11:30 a.m.—Contest awards. Winners and participants in the elementary school coloring contest (sponsored by Tyson Foods, Inc.) and the MLK Essay Contest (sponsored by Indiana Black Expo and the Indiana Pacers) will be recognized.

Noon—Enjoy an international food court, which will include some of your favorite local restaurants, or attend “Lunch with the Speakers.” Food court items may be purchased from each vendor; tickets for “Lunch with the Speakers” may be purchased by sending a $20 reservation fee to: Michelle Martin, Ivy Tech, PO Box 1373, Kokomo, IN 46903-1373. Please make checks payable to Ivy Tech State College; proceeds will benefit the Ivy Tech Dream Scholarship.

1 p.m.—Bill Miller, an award-winning Native-American singer, song writer and artist, will inspire you with his music. Mr. Miller recently was nominated for a 2005 Grammy award.

3 p.m.—Melba Beals, an inspirational keynote speaker, bestselling author and member of the Little Rock Nine, will share her story of facing the challenges of our changing world. The Kokomo High School Diversity Group students will introduce Ms. Beals.

4:30 p.m.—Family Worship Center Choir

5 p.m.—Book and CD signing.

5:30 p.m.—Meet the Speakers Reception. This reception is a wonderful opportunity to meet the speakers. It is cohosted by Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and Indiana Black Expo Kokomo Chapter. All members of the community are welcome.

This event is the beginning of a week of activities at the Ivy Tech campuses in Kokomo, Logansport and Wabash. For information, contact Susan Maxson, co-chair of Doing the Dream, at (800) 459-0561, ext. 419.
